Description

Villa Isola is a luxurious property located on the western shore of Lake Como. It owes its name to its strategic and enchanting position: from Villa Isola you can admire the Comacina Island, the only island of Lake Como. Recently built, it combines in the best possible way design and respect for nature: staying at Villa Isola means enjoying a breathtaking view and having every comfort.

Our luxury villa, Villa Isola, boasts a 180° view of Lake Como, favored by the glass window that unites living room, dining room and kitchen. These rooms are located on the ground floor in open space: this arrangement allows to give to the rooms brightness and spaciousness. Even if they are designed with the characteristics of a loft, the different levels of each room guarantee privacy and confidentiality to each of them (and to each guest who is there).

The numerous rooms of Villa Isola (4 master rooms and 2 standard rooms) can accommodate up to 12 people in this luxurious villa on Lake Como. The master rooms, two located on the ground floor and two on the second floor, have been designed to have an excellent lake view and natural lighting throughout the day; in addition, the furniture chosen for the furnishings are made entirely of natural cherry wood and serpentine stone from Valmalenco. The standard rooms, both located on the ground floor, have a direct view of the garden inside the villa and are equipped with private bathroom with modern shower.

Outside, Villa Isola has 3000 square meters of land: most of it is for the garden area and the pool area. Villa Isola boasts a wonderful infinity pool with Jacuzzi and direct view of Lake Como (and Isola Comacina).

The swimming pool is not the only place to enjoy the view of Lake Como: Villa Isola also boasts a charming terrace, equipped with lounge area, barbecue and outdoor dining room.

If what you are looking for is a holiday on Lake Como with privacy and luxury, but with the same comfort of the hotel, Villa Isola is the right choice!

Location

Sala Comacina is the village on the western shore of Lake Como where Villa Isola is located. Known above all for its position, just in front of Comacina Island, it is located inside the "Zoca de l'oli", a natural inlet where the waters are always calm and peaceful, just "smooth as oil". In addition to the direct view of Lake Como and its unique historical center (made of small streets, pebbles and arches and bridges), Sala Comacina is known for having hosted Alessandro Manzoni at Villa Rachele.

From Sala Comacina you can quickly reach some of the most beautiful villages in Italy, located on the western shore of Lake Como (such as Tremezzo and Menaggio) and famous villas such as Villa Balbianello and Villa Carlotta.
