Location

Villa Bianca is located only a few minutes away from the city center of Positano, the town also known as “The Pearl of the Amalfi Coast”. This beautiful village, located in an exclusive enclave in the hills leading down to the coast, started to prosper during the XVIth and XVIIth centuries, but became a tourist destination in the 1950s, after the Second World War and the starting of the famous Italian Dolce Vita.

Aside from the mesmerizing panoramas of the area, you definitely won’t miss the chance to visit the many works of art in and around the village: the church of Santa Maria Assunta, featuring a dome made od majolica tiles and a Thirteenth-century Byzantine icon of a Black Madon...
