Suites&Atelier Lake Como s a small medieval courtyard in the heart of Como.
Founded as a residence in the 16th century, for 40 years it housed the studio and workshop of Beppe Spadacini, a famous artist and renowned designer.

This splendid residence has been restored by the Italian architect Ivo Maria Redaelli to become today a true celebration of Art, thanks to its rooms and spaces full of fantastic masterpieces.

The residence is divided into five marvellous and luxurious suites, each with its own characteristics and peculiarities, all sharing the common thread of elegance and refinement.

TROPICAL SUITE: with furnishings reminiscent of the flora and fauna of tropical forests
COLONIAL SUITE: a plunge into the past that recalls the exotic style of India under the ancient British Empire
PALM SUITE: for a relaxing and peaceful atmosphere
CHINOISERIE SUITE: a fine and refined room with upholstery inspired by Chinese art
FLORAL SUITE: a majestic and elegant room celebrating flowers.

In addition to the suites, the hotel has an open-plan living area, with a lounge and kitchen area for private moments of relaxation and conviviality. A gem of the Suites&Atelier Lake Como is the prestigious library full of volumes, design, fashion and illustration magazines from the Spadacini Archive from the most exotic places in the world.

There is also a business area with a meeting room suitable for hosting meetings, gatherings, gala events and ceremonies.

Suites&Atelier Lake Como is a structure that, thanks to its versatility, can meet a variety of needs for individuals and companies: from a holiday stay, to a private ceremony or party, to corporate events. There is also the possibility of renting individual suites or the entire structure.
