Villa Camelia is situated on a hilltop overlooking Lake Como and occupies the site of an ancient medieval watchtower. This position gives it one of the most beautiful views in Europe. This splendid three-storey villa, with its Art Nouveau style, was built in 1909 and has been completely restored to a very high standard in its 1231 sqm.

It is a three-level villa where comfortably sleep 14 people. Moreover additional children beds are available. All the bedroom suites are designed in a contemporary and stylish manner in keeping with the villa's elegant features. An elevator links the 3 main floors and the caretakers apartment and laundry in the basement.

It is composed by eight elegant double bedrooms (six ensuite), a well-finished drawing room, a beautiful living room, a big dining room, a fully-equipped kitchen, a comfortable study and a media room, a bar with all the accessories and a wonderful pool with the pool house.

Villa Camelia has no neighbours thanks to its ancient strategic position located 881 metres above the lake. It is the perfect oasis of calm. It has infinity gardens of 4.5 acres.

The panorama offers a stunning combination between the blue Como Lake and green Pre-Alps mountains: here you could enjoy spectacular golden sunsets.
