Description

For those who love contemporary design and Italian style, Villa Infinito is the perfect villa. A luxury property sited on the slopes of Monte Bonifato, which dominates the beautiful city of Alcamo (Sicily), offering a breathtaking view over the Gulf of Castellammare. Its position allows the guests to easily join the most charming beaches of the territory, like the Zingaro Natural Reserve and the Scopello Tonnara with its spectacular faraglioni.

The locations of this exclusive villa are characterised by geometrical lines which create a marked design; this idea of the designer, furthermore, is linked to the image of every room as a panoramic point. The villa is divided into two floors and the doorway opens on a very particular fully glazed living room: in the middle, indeed, there is a reproduction of a shell's shape which contains a living room with breathtaking view over the city. Remaining at the first floor, there is a modern open space kitchen-living room. The sleeping area is composed by master bedroom, with private bathroom and exclusive Jacuzzi; there is also a double bedroom and another master bedroom. For this rooms there is another elegant bathroom, with bath and shower.

The ground floor overlooks a lush garden and a beautiful panoramic swimming pool; at this level of the home, there is another open space hall with fireplace, reading corner and dining area, as well as an elegant bright kitchen. The ground floor also has got three bedrooms, a double one and a master one, and two bathrooms with shower.

Outside there is a luxuriant garden which frames a spectacular infinity swimming pool with view over the sea. There is also a barbecue area to organize lunches and dinners with friends, and a play area for your kids .

Inside the location there is some fitness equipment and the access to the villa is doted with a platform to accommodate disabled people and a safety gate for children, which makes this villa completely family-friendly.
