Description

Villa Puma is a luxury home surrounded by nature and located in Trappeto, a village of the beautiful Sicily.

The property has two floors, with access from the living room: refined and elegant room, decorated with soft colours which communicate an atmosphere of complete relax for the guests of the house. From the living room you can access the kitchen through an arch; the kitchen is fully equipped and shows a wide glass window. On the ground floor there are also a master bedroom and a double one, together with a bathroom equipped with shower.

You can reach the first floor by an outdoor stair. In this area of the house there are a suite room and another bathroom with shower, in addition to a little kitchen corner useful to make breakfasts to enjoy on the veranda.

Outside the house there are two wide verandas that give guests the possibility to relax surrounded by the peace of this place, with a beautiful view over the swimming pool. Here there is a solarium area, surrounded by a luxuriant garden with typical plants of the Mediterranean marquis.
