Description

Villa Evan is a simple XVI-century building surrounded by olive groves, vineyards and woods nearby the old city of Arezzo, and its Duomo, in a tranquil location on the south-west side of Tuscany. This luxury villa can accommodate about 18 guests, making it suitable for a vacation for some families with many children.

The decor and exterior of this property are simple enough, so guests staying there with their children shouldn't worry too much about possible furniture damage by the kids; the swimming pool is protected and makes this villa completely kids friendly.

Villa Evan is a large country cottage that has retained its original architectural structure: simple and rational, with vast living areas and bedrooms; the bathrooms have been completely restored. Those who prefer the rustic style of decor and would like to turn a little bit back in time will love this property. This villa is delightful from May to October because it is located in a hilly area, allowing guests to feel comfortable without excessive heat.

Location

The upper part of Arezzo maintains its medieval appearance despite the addition of later structures.

This area is renowned for its great climate, culture and traditions, and offers some between the best wines and views of the entire Region. The...
