Description

It's always a great wedding the one between a wonderful territory such as Tuscany and a majestic villa gone under a bold restoration: Villa Marble lies in the fortunate land of Leonardo da Vinci, the famous wine and oil producing territory of Montalbano, a territory that offers an unlimited number of small towns and hamlets all around, all with their restaurants, cafes and breadshops, starting from Montecatini Alto, just five minutes away from the gate of this property.

Each area of this luxury house for rent features its own air conditioning control, while the private wine cellar offers a selection of labels including very important Super Tuscans. Walls are painted in natural whitewash with pastel shades. Bathrooms in yellow Siena marble, travertine or fine ceramics and plastered in lime and finished with natural encausto technique typical of eighteenth-century Tuscan tradition.

A large swimming pool (17 by 9 meters), entirely in travertine marble, blends with its surrounding landscape. The luxury Villa Marble can accommodate up to 18 guests.
