Location

Villa Nebula is located in the magnificent Argentario area in Tuscany, Italy. The Maremma-Argentario area is especially famous for its long, beautiful coastline where sandy beaches alternate with rocky cliffs, and features amazing corners bordered by dunes, green bushes, spectacularly colored flowers and the typical lush and thick pine groves. Villa Nebula is definitely perfect for those wanting to immerse themselves in the luscious nature of Tuscany, living fully a territory that tries to keep a very understated profile in order to avoid the north Riviera excesses and crowds. Not casually, this area was loved – in the past – by nobles and politicians, who wanted to spend their vacations in the uncontaminated nature of the region.
