Description

Villa Rigoletta is the perfect accommodation if you're planning to discover the breathtaking beauty and charm of southern Tuscany, where rolling hills, picturesque towns, and a rich cultural heritage await.

This stunning luxury property for rent, nestled between the enchanting towns of Siena and Porto Ercole and a reasonable distance from Rome, provides a bohemian retreat that exudes luxury, comfort and elegance. We could describe Villa Rigoletta almost as a family home boasting a unique blend of classic Italian design and modern touches, resulting in a new-classic style that is both timeless and contemporary.

Perfectly restored to reflect its original appearance, the villa features nine bedrooms, each with an ensuite or private bathroom, offering plenty of space for up to eighteen guests. The wooden boards and brushed tiled stone floors add to the charm of this Italian casa, while the wood-beamed ceilings lend an airy and even more spacious feel to the interiors. Elements of classic Italian residential design, such as the terrace connecting the two buildings and a large fireplace used as a sitting area, mix with contemporary touches for a timeless sensory experience.

One of Villa Rigoletta's most unique features is the restoration of an old wheat silo into a modern health center with an additional room on top, adding a touch of whimsy and modernity to this traditional-looking retreat. Materials include several Italian classics, such as Serena stone, wood, and travertine marble, creating a perfect blend of luxury and comfort.

Inside the villa, you will also find a billiard room and two TV rooms, providing ample space to unwind and
