Description

The charming Casa Diomedes awaits you in the magnificent Apulia region: this fully renovated traditional farmhouse and the surrounding Mediterranean garden, studded with lavender, pomegranate trees and prickly pears, are a pleasure for the senses both indoors and outdoors.

Located in one of the most unspoiled provinces of the region, still partly undisclosed by mass tourism and featuring sandy white beaches and crystal-clear waters, Casa Diomedes will give you a unique chance to enjoy both the Ionian and Adriatic Seas because of its secluded and privileged position, immersed in lush olive groves in the plains of Southern Apulia.

The interior design of this two-story house is a triumph of white and creamy color patterns that welcome the sunlight inside the airy rooms – as is typical in this region's homes. Beautiful artisan-made furnishings and historically accurate architectural choices enhance the property's material aesthetics: from the vaulted ceilings to the Lecce stone floors, from the locally sourced and carved wood to the stunning ceramics. The feeling is that of a traditional Apulian Masseria, yet many contemporary touches will make your vacation modern, luxurious and thoroughly comfortable: the beautiful private swimming pool, the outdoor lounge area with sunbeds, the two alfresco areas, and also the central air conditioning and indoor Wi-Fi system.

Casa Diomedes can accommodate up to ten guests in its five double bedrooms with en suite bathrooms. The indoor area also features an elegant sitting room, a fully equipped eat-in kitchen and a master suite with a private living room and a kitchenette that is surrounded by the Masseria's private garden.

This luxury property is a perfect rental opportunity for those looking for an Italian holiday spent mostly outdoors and very close to the water: Casa Diomedes' access to the sea is just twenty minutes from the Adriatic Sea and forty minutes from the Ionian Sea. It's a dream come true.
